

From the "OM planes" to the Christ plane!

Excerpts from Stefan Bamberg

Due to recent events, another article that was already published 12 years ago about the dangers of the mantra "OM" and the planes people expose themselves to when they get involved with "OM":

It is time for us to free ourselves from all "masters" who do not do the work of Christ and who bind people to the lower planes using mantras, meditation techniques and logical-sounding philosophies!

Protect yourselves from Indian mantras and meditations. These do not come from Christ and have the effect of preventing people from working on their karma and imprisoning them in the lower planes. Western philosophies which try to re-write true feelings with the power of positive thinking also only cover over the problem and offer no real solution to the underlying problem. This covering-up with positive thinking, fake laughter, the repetition of mantras or the name of God himself has no real effect on karma, rather it only masquerades as an effective measure in that it coats over your true feelings with an extra layer, leaving you to live in an illusory world.

This is the intention of certain wilful fallen beings who brought these "techniques" to this world for this very reason. In this way they hope to sway humanity towards an artificial holiness (in the truest sense of the words) and thereby prevent people taking an honest look at themselves and seeing themselves as they really are. I would particularly like to mention the so-called Indian "Gayatri-Mantra", which is quite well known today and is held by the Indian masters to be the highest and purest Mantra.

The Sanskrit translation contains a paean of praise to God. However in reality it is connected to a being that put itself in Gods place many thousands of years ago!!

Further links to the "OM planes" will now have devastating consequences as these planes are not under the protection of Christ. In people linked to these planes, there are more and more cases of epilepsy, attacks of raving madness, possession and sometimes even complete exchanges of souls, such as I recently witnessed amongst people I know. In this case, the constant reciting of the Gayatri mantra completely catapulted the soul from the body. Another soul was then able to take over this person's body which was not protected as it was bound to planes not accepted by Christ.

This can happen very easily when connecting to the "OM planes", especially now that these planes are in the process of a final disintegration and a final battle for or against Christ is taking place there.

Consider that the OM mantra does not lead to the light, but was rather created by the dark side for the precise purpose of binding people to material things.

Whoever is bound to these planes and wants to be free of them must actively tear themselves away with all their strength. Ask Christ for his protection. These planes know how to bind people to them over and over without them noticing, like an elastic band...
