

The Inter-Planetary Law of God

The Absolute Law

The Santin, the transmitter of the Inter-Planetary Law of God to Moses. This initial Inter Planetary Law consists of seven main and seven commandments claims. It demonstrates the deep love for God and his creation, which is reflected by how much we trust our friends may be extraterrestrial. Unfortunately these sacred lines distorted by human influence and in the biblical, imperfect form of the Ten Commandments placed. About the media Contact us human was the law repeatedly.

The absolute law is a universal law, that is, it is not just for the earth people are valid, but f ü Ralle people, equal to what star they live. Also, the Earth people have received this law. It was on Mount Sinai to Moses passed. During the handover by Santin Moses was 40 days as a guest in an alien spaceship, and there was informed and instructed accordingly. When Moses left the mountain to the Absolute law or law of heaven his people pass it along, this was destroyed by the priests, because it is against their interests, e was. Later it emerged from memory the "Ten Commandments".

The seven main bids

- In the beginning was a raumlose power. It was the logos, the highest intelligence. You're not capable of such power and intelligence by any likeness to make it. You can not have its own considerations about reflection, but do using your own intellect and sense the intelligence as your creator. Everything else is thinking in this direction is of evil.
- You can not violate the laws of nature and live act, because you not only harm you and your soul, but many of your offspring, which will in any way to help is if you are the intelligent creation of God have done. You carry the full responsibility for any suffering on this earth.
- You can not mock your Creator yet, even if you use it with your own undeveloped thinking not understand or grasp it, because you are not more but less than God. That does not dirtying his name and bring him not in conjunction with your own thinking. Criticize not the logo, because it is infallible due to his infinite experience and infinite force.
- Be hard working, both in thought and in action. But know that the idea of the greatest power and the highest heritage of God. Your idea is immeasurable in its impact, beyond and within. Think with all reverence to thy Creator, in both the generation of your descendants as well as designing of all things, and create each case only for good and never to dishonor God and your self. Beware the tireless hard work of the creator and respect the work of your fellow human beings, the creation to the glory of God in white Sch serve.

- Make no distinction between rich and poor, still a difference between young and old or between a color. Honor and respect the experiences of the suffering. Hear the advice of your parents, if they are to God, the Creator, believe. Without this belief you can maybe rich, but never happy, satisfied, even less will be beatified.
- Your creator wants you to live in the world than his eighth power. you have no right over the life of a fellow to be determined. Fight opposing the creation and life-destructive life. Kill no animal to your pleasure, but only to maintain and safeguard your own life.
- no damage other people, either in body or soul, nor in reputation or to his self-produced goods. It is not damaging to his development, neither his love nor his freedom, but help him all the time in all these things without having to wait thanks. Bar your contribution to truth and to preserve all the facilities that your life, your health and your mental and emotional development.

The seven claims

- witness was not from your desire, but from the voluntary sacrifice, a gifted soul to a better insight and self-knowledge and to help them so long to make up the independence of thought and action has become.
- Pay your life companion as responsible bearers of the divine will, the divine life, and as the pioneer of the planned future. Their failure means the destruction in slow, but inevitable consequence.
- Parts are not the treasures on this earth, because they are all creatures, but especially to all people without any outward difference where. The star ground is a gift of God to all mankind, in this star is alive and ever will live.
- do not envy others, nor a group or a nation, nor a race, nor a country in which people live for themselves. Because you can not know with any certainty whether or not those you do not envy because of an error that has not been detected.
- do not turn to violence, even if you believe, stronger, or to be attacked. Indeed, any violence is a challenge eerie forces that not only your opponents, but also destroy yourself, and the future of your offspring make it difficult or impossible.
- Serve thee in all the difficulties of the logo and turn away from the Ratschägen your advisers and enemies, the same as waiting for your downfall.
- do not trust your senses, because your soul is capable of the ultimate decision - and God help you and nothing else.
