

From the "OM levels" to the Christ's level!

On topical occasion once again an article which we already published 12 years ago already once, about the dangers of the Mantras "OM" and the levels in which one gets involved if one has got involved in this "OM":

It is a time to free itself of all "masters", not on behalf of Christ work and bind the people with the help of Mantren, meditation technologies and apparently logically sounding Philosophien to low levels!

Protects you against Indian Mantras and meditations. These do not come from Christ's mind and cause that the person does not work on his brought karmical packages and further remains in low levels arrested. Also all western ones Mental philosophy, they the real feelings with put on positive thinking want to cover, cause only one Übertünchung, but no real resolution of the underlying problem. This whitewashing with positive thoughts, to artificial laughter, repeating of Mantras or even of the name of God no real karma resolution causes, but gets to believe only this, while she puts a layer before your feeling level which allows to live you in a false world.

This is over the intention of certain unconventional case beings, they these "technologies" to this reason have placed in the world. With it they want the person in one False holiness in the most true sense of the word weigh, and thus prevent that the person looks really once with clear glasses, quite honestly to himself. I would like to mention here in particular also the so-called Indian "Gayatri-Mantra" which is widespread today and is looked by Indian masters as the highest and purest Mantra.

In the Sanskrit-Translation it is a hymn of praise on God. However, in the reality it picks a quarrel to a mental being, which has sat down many thousand years ago once to the place of God!!

Now other binding to these "OM levels" will cause the heaviest results, because they do not stand under the protection of Christ. Now it step with people who are bound to these levels, more and more cases of epilepsy, madness attacks, Occupations and even entire soul exchange instead of, as I had to experience it even recently in my friend's circle in all clearness. In this case it arrived that the soul was catapulted by durable reciting of the Gayatri-Mantras properly from the body. Then it was able by the fact that the person was not protected by binding to the levels which do not accept Christ, another soul his body take over.

This can happen while binding to the "OM levels" very easily, especially now in Moment, because these levels are now in resolution and thereby still the last fight for or against Christ takes place.

Think, the OM-Mantra leads you not in bright areas, but was created by the dark side also in addition to bind the people to the matter. Who is still bound to these levels, and now would like to free itself of it, must free itself really actively with whole strength from it. If Christ asks for his protection. These levels know how to bind the person indiscernibly over and over again, like in an elastic band, to themselves.
